Mid Week Market

Experience for

Jr. Entrepreneurs

JUST

FOR KIDS!

Starting July 12th and continuing till school starts, the Friends of Beck Bookman Library Steering Committee is offering you an opportunity to support the library and make some extra spending money! This activity for Ages 8-15! Here's how:

- 1) Like a garage sale, but participants may sell garden produce, crafts, cookies, outgrown clothing, sports equipment, jewelry, plants, toys, lemonade stand, ice cold drinks, books, baked goods, misc.
- 2) Bring your own card table & chair, no larger tables please. Bring your own money for making change and take full responsibility for keeping money safe. Attend your table at all times SELLER KEEPS 100% OF THE PROFITS!
- 3) FIRST EVENT (July 12th only) IS FREE! After July 12, participants must become a Jr. Member ($3 per year) and “rent” table space for $5 on each market day). Market days will be held each Wednesday from 10 AM to 1PM on the north library lawn from July 12 till school starts.. An adult will be on site during the market to supervise. Parents are welcome to accompany their child(ren), but not required.

Permission Slip I give my child _____ permission to participate in the Jr. Market. I will be responsible for my child's arrival, set up and take down. I do not hold FOBBL accountable for broken items, misplaced money, or accidents. Questions? Call Betsy Gilliland 851-9167
